Every community deserves access to fun, social and multigenerational play.

That's been our commitment to inclusive play and to enriching childhood since 1929.

Reinventing inclusive play.

For more than three decades GameTime has designed inclusive play spaces that bring together people of all ages and abilities and make communities stronger. Now we're reinventing inclusive play innovation with new products, research, and resources that transform a play space into a sensory-rich experience.

DESIGNING INCLUSIVE PLAY SPACES

Inclusive design increases a play environment's usability for people of all abilities.

To help communities address the needs of the whole child, and to provide all five developmental benefits, we provide resources like Me2<sup>SM</sup> 7 Principles of Inclusive Playground Design®. Developed in partnership with PlayCore and Utah State University Center for Persons with Disabilities, Me2 is an education resource and best practice design guide for inclusive play environments that increases the usability for people of all generations, backgrounds and abilities.

Developed in partnership with PlayCore and Lekotek, 2PlayTogether® fosters friendships through character development. This resource equips programmers with tips and activities that will promote play, understanding, and fun between children of all abilities.

The AblePlay rating system was developed by Lekotek - the leading authority on play for children with disabilities. Lekotek conducted an independent evaluation of many GameTime products and their AblePlay rating has been awarded for the developmental areas of physical, sensory, communication, cognitive and social-emotional benefits. Look for the AblePlay rating on products in this brochure.
